

Animal Communication Tele-Class

Tune in from anywhere! Internet not needed!

What is your pet trying to tell you when he stares at you so intently? Discover ways to connect with your pets telepathically to better know their needs and wants. Learn specific exercises to access and fine-tune your telepathic skills, taking you to a new level of awareness about your animal companions, yourself, and your pet/human family. Gain confidence in your ability to connect to your pets in their language, and give them messages to help them feel safe & loved. Connect with your pets who have transitioned! YES, it is actually easier than when they are still on the earth plane! The animals consistently have personal messages for us too! By the end of this class, you will feel relaxed, energized, and excited to connect to your pet and play with your new multi-dimensional skills!

Wendy Cooper, MSW, Animal Communicator, had a thriving psychotherapy practice for years. She has used telepathic communication with animals for the past 18 years. Her current focus is to serve her clients to the utmost when it comes to relief from grief over a sick pet or one that has crossed over, clarity about pet's behavior, readiness to transition, animal's "mission" from his/her perspective, personal messages for the animal's "human companions" and fun! Wendy is a Reiki Level II practitioner and co-author of the renowned books, "The Spirit of Women Entrepreneurs" and "Make It A Great Day-The Choice is Yours."
